

Call for proposals for the awarding of grants for annual and multiannual promotional programmes in IOC member countries

1. Purpose

Within the framework of the promotion activities approved by the Council of Members of the International Olive Council (IOC), the Executive Secretariat (ES) intends to award grants to finance annual and multiannual national programmes of a maximum duration of four years, aimed at promoting the local consumption of olive oil and table olives in IOC member countries.

The objectives of these grants are, inter alia, to build a market culture in member countries that wish to showcase the quality of local products, as well as to encourage cooperation between all IOC member countries. The proposed actions and events should be distinctly centred on their promotional worth and fall in line with the objectives laid out in the International Agreement on Olive Oil and Table Olives, 2015.

2. Duration

Proposals must clearly specify the duration of the planned activities:

- Projects submitted for annual grants must involve activities to be carried out during the current year (2026); these are referred to as annual projects.
- Projects to be carried out over the next two, three or four calendar years (2026–2029) are referred to as multiannual projects.

For multiannual grants, the award decision covers the overall duration of the project. However, the continuation of the grant for each subsequent year shall be subject to:

- Availability of the corresponding IOC budget appropriations;
- Satisfactory implementation of the previous phase of the action;
- Signing of an annual addendum between the beneficiary and the IOC for the specific implementation year concerned.

3. Available funding of annual and multiannual grants and co-financing rates

- The global budget available¹ for annual grants in 2026 is €64,100.00 (sixty-four thousand one hundred euros) from which a maximum of €22.100 (twenty-two thousand one hundred euros) may be awarded to multiannual grants. The availability of funds for the following years depends on the adoption of the subsequent budgets by the Council of Members of the IOC. At this point in time, it is expected that the amount allocated for grants will be similar to that of the previous year.

¹ The available amount budgeted for 2026 may be subject to budget availability and to possible changes.

- With the aim of distributing the available budget among the largest number of applicants, the maximum amount per grant will be of €6,000 per calendar year for each beneficiary.
- The amount granted by the IOC shall in no case exceed 50 % of the cost of the co-financed activity programmed for that calendar year.
- For multiannual grants, funding for subsequent years will be subject to budget availability and to the satisfactory implementation of the project in the preceding year.

4. Actions supported by the grants

The proposals submitted must provide a rundown of the activities to be carried out in each calendar year of the project (throughout a maximum period of four years). The applicants should clearly explain all the activities of the global project and provide an itemised budget for each planned year of activity.

For guidance, the programmes submitted should encompass activities such as those listed below:

- Organisation of seminars, trade fairs, symposiums and workshops;
- Information points at food and nutrition fairs;
- Promotional material (brochures, CDs, books, etc.);
- Invitations for the participation of international specialists;

The IOCES has also decided to award grants to support the organisation of national extra virgin olive oil quality competitions organised by competent authorities, meeting the conditions foreseen in the IOC standards (IOC T30/2/Doc. N. 3).

Grants will be governed by an agreement and subject to the following principles:

- The aim of the financed project or action is to help achieve the objectives outlined in the International Agreement on Olive Oil and Table Olives, 2015.
- Co-financing principle: external co-financing is required from a source other than an IOC grant, either in the form of the beneficiary's own resources or as financial contributions from third parties. Grants awarded by the IOC must in no case exceed 50 % of the cost of the co-financed activity.
- Non-profit principle: grants may not have the purpose or effect of leading to profit for the beneficiary.
- Non-retroactivity principle: expenditures incurred prior to the signature of the agreement will not be accepted.

- Non-cumulation principle: only one grant may be awarded for any single action to any one beneficiary per budget year.
- Transparency principle.
- Equal treatment principle.

5. Partnership requirements: Who can apply?

The following categories of applicants are eligible for funding:

- Public-law bodies (bodies governed by public law);
- Private non-profit entities.

Eligible candidates must be legal entities established in an IOC member country. Applicants belonging to member countries that have lost their rights according to Article 16.8² of the International Agreement on Olive Oil and Table Olives, 2015, will not be eligible.

6. Additional requirements

Involvement of the Heads of Delegation

Special consideration will be given to projects endorsed by the Head of Delegation of the member country submitting proposals. In the case of proposals from the European Union (EU), endorsement by the national authorities of the country submitting the proposal will be accepted.

Originality of proposals

Proposals that present creative and innovative ideas will receive additional points for originality, ensuring that the IOC funds new and impactful approaches.

Geographical balance

In order to ensure equitable representation across IOC member countries, the final selection of proposals will take into account geographical balance. The evaluation process will consider the distribution of grants to various regions to avoid over-concentration in any single area and to promote the promotion of olive oil across diverse member countries. This will help ensure that olive oil promotion activities are widespread and inclusive across all IOC member regions.

² Article 16.8: "After two consecutive years of unpaid contributions, the Council of Members may, upon hearing the member in arrears, decide that the latter shall cease to enjoy the rights of membership but may participate in sessions as an observer within the meaning of article 8, paragraph 7".

13. Financial provisions

Activities will be financed up to a limit of 50 % of the total activity cost per year, and the amount financed by IOC per grant shall in no case exceed €6,000 per year.

In the application form, each project is required to set out their overall spending plan broken down for each of the reporting periods, taking the following into consideration:

- The proposal has to include a budget in euros, indicating all the itemised costs in relation to the action for each project year. The budget presentation template available on the IOC submission portal must be used. The budget must be balanced and must respect the principles of co-financing, non-profitability, non-retroactivity and non-cumulation.
- The IOC will reimburse only eligible costs. Eligible costs are defined as costs that are actual and incurred by the beneficiary during the action, contributing to the objectives of the grant in an economic, efficient and effective manner.
- The reporting periods cover periods of a calendar year, except for the first reporting period, which covers the period from the signing of the agreement until the end of 2026. The terms of reporting shall be defined in the agreement to be signed by the Parties.
- The spending plan should be an estimation of the actual payments to be made in each of the reporting periods. It is essential that candidates:
 - Carefully prepare a realistic spending plan (spending usually increases over the semesters that a project is running);
 - Are ready to start implementing their project soon after it has been approved;
 - Monitor spending continuously during its implementation;
 - Ensure regular, timely and complete reporting.

To obtain the reimbursement of a cost, it must have been included in the budget of the action. Slight modifications to the budget for each year may be requested on an annual basis.

However, the budget will not be modified without the prior written approval of the IOC. The ES reserves the right to reduce the amount of the allocated grant based on the analysis of the Evaluation Committee without changing any other element of the proposal.

As a general rule, the costs will be reimbursed once the action has been completed, all documents have been sent to the IOC and these have been duly checked and approved.

With exception of the first year, the receipt of the sum for future project years will be conditional on budget availability, as well as on the implementation of the previous year's project.
